Introduction

Robinson High School has a well-planned campus of thirty-one acres. In 1910, the main building was erected. Then in 1920 the vocational building was added. In 1921, the main building was destroyed by fire, but it was rebuilt by 1922. In 1939, our excellent gymnasium was completed. In 1954, twenty-eight new classrooms, a farm shop, an industrial arts shop, a cafeteria and a girls' gym were added.

Approximately 45 teachers teach a variety of courses, which are offered in every major field. A student body of 1,000 passes through the doors to class 185 days of the year. RHS is ranked as one of the highest centers of learning in Southern Illinois. In times gone by and as time passes, RHS advances to meet a growing community's needs.

Six minutes from now the silence of this hall will be broken by the rushing of students to 6th hour class.

The crowning of Susie Shepard, senior queen candidate, was the highlight of the 1957-1958 carnival.

We will always remember our senior mascot, Susie the cow, and our senior queen, Susie Shepard.

Reverend Kenneth L. Brooks was speaker for the Thanksgiving program.

The winter concert is presented annually by the RHS music department

Dorothy and Fred Smythe, playing twin pianos, gave an enjoyable lyceum in December.

The Drama Club production this year was "East Lynne" a melodrama.

The Christmas tree in the cafeteria, furnished by Mr. Newlin, cafeteria supervisor, added extra zest to the holiday season and Christmas dinner at RHS.

Dancing in the foyer of the gymnasium was one of the activities available at the Christmas Dinner.

Career Day proved very helpful to many seniors.

Seniors from all over Crawford County were invited to attend the Senior Career Day at RHS.

Of course, we can't all be completely satisfied when grades come out. There are always a few of us who wish we had studied harder.

Preparation for the big game.

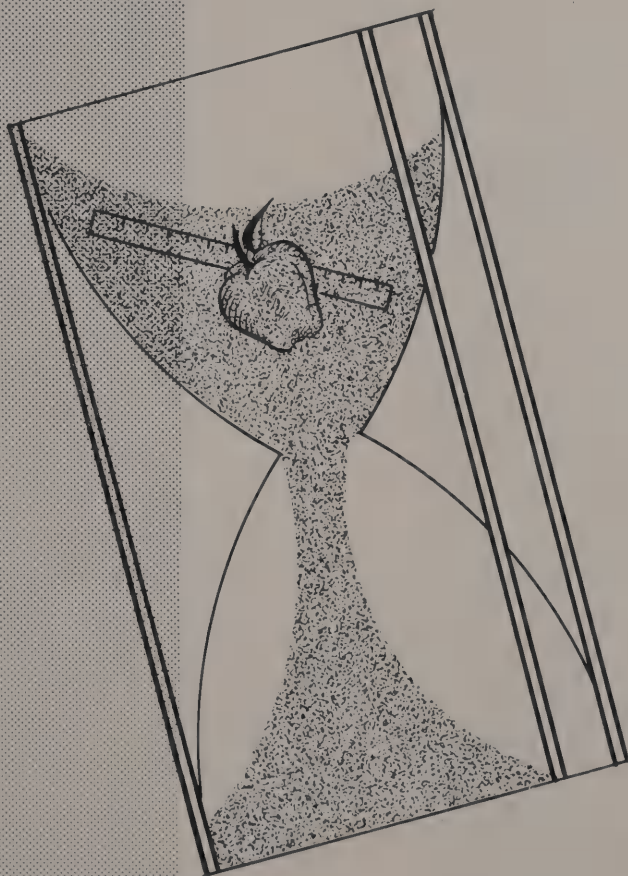

Did it go in? All we need is one little point.

Everyone seemed to enjoy the pepsi dances after the home games.

Faculty

Time cannot erase the excellent records RHS teachers have made and continue to make. We, Seniors, can always have our troubles straightened out and can always obtain guidance from these worthy counsellors. We will always remember the good times we have had in their classes.

Ivan R. Miller, President; Scott Funkhouser, Superintendent; Carl H. Zwermann, Secretary; Earl Bush; T. B. Steele, Jr.; Bayard E. Heath, Jr.; Paul Murray. Mayo Tohill was absent.

These capable men make up the cornerstone of our school system. The members of the Board of Education are citizens of the Unit who are interested in the schools and render their time and efforts without compensation. These men, who are elected by the people of the Unit, work with the superintendent to better our school.

Our guidance counselor, Mr. John Parker, is always willing to help us solve our problems here at school. He is one of the busiest men in the school.

Mr. Scott A. Funkhouser, Superintendent of Schools, strives to make our school better. His sincerity and dignified manner has won him the respect of the RHS students.

Everyone has come in contact with Mr. E. O. May, principal of RHS. He tries to give the students a fair deal in all things concerning them. Mr. May returned to RHS after an absence of several years, during which time he worked in a teacher placement bureau.

During the first quarter, some of our students were fortunate to have a student teacher part of the time in their classrooms. They were Mr. Pinkstaff, Mrs. Van-Tassell, and Mr. Conley.

FACULTY INFORMALS

Miss Newlin gave a tea for the faculty in November before she retired.

The art classes did a fine job of decorating our front hall bulletin for American Education Week.

A tea was given for the faculty and parents at the close of American Education Week.

The dependability and efficiency of the bus drivers is greatly appreciated by our many student passengers.

Thanks to our custodians, we, the students of RHS, may be proud of our buildings.

The preparation of lunch for the faculty and 1,000 students is in the hands of these capable women.

Seniors

For nine months out of every year, students and faculty members spend much time at RHS. Fall, with its beginning days of school, football season, and carnival, brings much excitement. The winter season brings an untold story of tradition and good will to all of the patrons of Robinson High School. Spring, with a hidden beauty, carries thrills to all the student body and the teachers for all know that they are approaching a new season of excitement and a long term of the future.

1958 SENIORS

In the spring of our high school career we, as freshmen, began our four year stay at RHS with much enthusiasm. We started earning money for our future years by actively participating in the annual school carnival. Chloe Noblitt was our freshman representative in the carnival queen race.

As the summer of our high school came, we were well represented as the sophomore class. We sponsored a class dance known as the "Sophomore Subject Swing." Representing our class as carnival queen candidate was Carolyn Stinson.

The autumn of our high school career approached and we, as juniors, participated in many activities. Carnival was one of our major activities with Kay Alexander as our queen candidate. We presented the junior musical "Girl Crazy" with the co-operation of the music department. The combined efforts of these two organizations made the musical a tremendous success. The highlight of our junior year was our presentation of the annual Junior-Senior Prom. A garden and fountain setting was perfect for the theme "Moonlight and Roses."

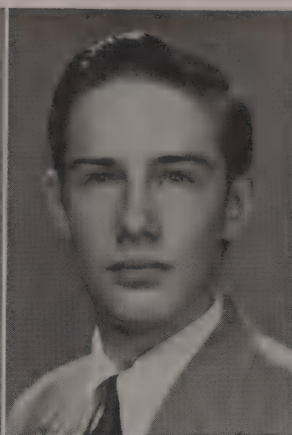

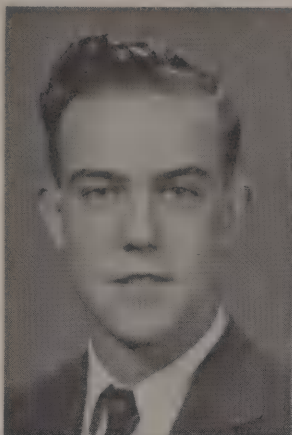

In the December of our high school years, we had much success. The queen of the 1957 carnival was our senior candidate Susie Shepard. Susie was escorted to the throne by David Wilkin, senior class president. Lynda Daron and David Wilkin were honored by being chosen DAR and SAR recipients, respectively.

As winter falls upon this four year stay at RHS, we, as departing seniors, find it hard to say good-bye to a place that has held so many happy memories for us. Carrying with us these wonderful memories, we bid the school and the faculty au revoir then turn to face the future.

Lynda Daron was honored by her classmates and the faculty when she was selected to receive the DAR award. This is an award presented by the Daughters of the American Revolution and is primarily a good citizenship award, although many other factors help determine the recipient of the award. Lynda has actively participated in many school activities during her four year stay at RHS. She served as secretary of her class her junior year and also helped on many committees. Lynda was also an active member of Latin Club, Drama Club, Band, and Tri-Hi-Y. Lynda has been an active member of the newspaper staff also. For the past two years she has held the position of feature editor. Her work on the newspaper staff earned for her membership in the honorary newspaper club, Quill and Scroll. Too, Lynda has been active in Student Council work. By this outstanding record, it is easy to tell why Lynda received this DAR award.

David Wilkin was presented the SAR award by the Daughters of the American Revolution with the permission of the Sons of the American Revolution. During his high school career, Dave has been active in football and basketball, receiving his letter in football during his junior year. He has been an active member in the Student Council, Latin Club, and Lettermen's Club. Dave also was a member of Science Club. During his last and senior year in high school, Dave served as president of the senior class. Through his hard work and driving ambition, Dave has well earned this SAR award.

Activities

Extra-curricular activities play a big part in the lives of RHS students to make the four high school years memorable ones. Each month contains its own activities which provide opportunities for relaxation from studies, and leave behind many happy memories. From September, when school first starts complete with "green freshmen," until May when the "sophisticated seniors" depart, is crowded with many activities planned and presented by the numerous clubs. When we, as alumni, reflect on our years spent in Robinson High School, the activities in which we participated will remain as happy memories.

ROBINILLO

The Robinillo staff is made up of junior and senior students who are interested in producing the best yearbook that RHS has ever had. Under the guidance of Miss Macalene Riegel, the staff has spent much time and energy to complete this book which you now have. We sincerely hope that all of you find the 1958 Robinillo very interesting.

Co-Editor Ron McCoy and some Robinillo staff members plan the dummy for the 1958 yearbook.

During the yearly drive, many sales are made, such as this one by Lois Thompson, business manager.

Through the hard work of the juniors and seniors who compose the Robinillo staff, the book is compiled which contains a year's memories at RHS. As juniors, the students learn the duties which their position holds, and in the next year, they help teach the newcomers to the staff. After much planning, the Robinillo is presented for the student's approval. Up to this time, the theme of the book is kept secret.

The money for the yearbook is provided in many ways. Two of these are the sales to the students, and the annual all-school carnival. The yearbook staff, along with the Drama Club and Student Council, share the responsibility of the carnival by taking charge of the election of queens.

Each year, as a climax of the carnival, the finale is held, at which time the queen is crowned. This coronation is planned by the Robinillo staff.

Mrs. Smith, who is our sponsor, has helped a great deal with the club's progress. This year we have had several money making projects. Among these are selling license plate plaques and having a bake sale. This money is spent to better the club, and we hope to make a trip or have a picnic at the end of the year. Any girl at RHS who is interested in sports may become a member of G. A. A. Through attending meetings and participating in sports, they receive points to earn numerals, letters, and other awards.

The purpose of the club is to attain high standards of sportsmanship through activities, to provide an organization in which girls can acquire new friends, and to stimulate interest in sports.

FUTURE FARMERS OF AMERICA

The National Organization of the Future Farmers of America was formed in 1928.

The aim of the Future Farmers is to develop co-operation, citizenship, brotherhood, and agricultural leadership among the members who will be farmers and leaders of tomorrow.

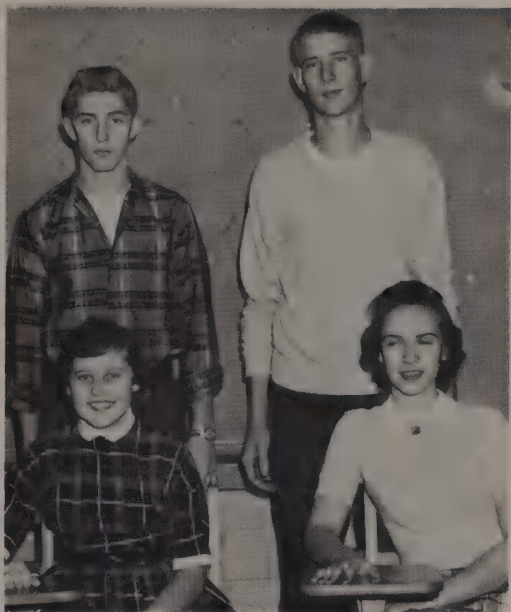

Our creed in short says that we believe in the future of farming, working on a farm, even in the hours of discouragement, in leadership and in the ability of organized farmers to serve our own and in public interest, in marketing the product of toil, playing square with those whose happiness depends upon me.

To become a member of the F. F. A. the student has to be enrolled in an agriculture course. This year there are 52 active members under the direction of Mr. Hocking.

Some of the projects of the club are the annual pest control contest, the selling of Christmas cards, and a concession at the RHS carnival.

ART CLUB

The Art Club is one of the newer clubs at RHS. It was organized in 1956 under the direction of Mr. Max Rennels. During the first year the membership was 27. These members went to Chicago in April 1957, where they visited the Art Institute and the Museum of Science and Industry.

The membership this year is also 27. Each member must either be enrolled in an art class or have been, at some time.

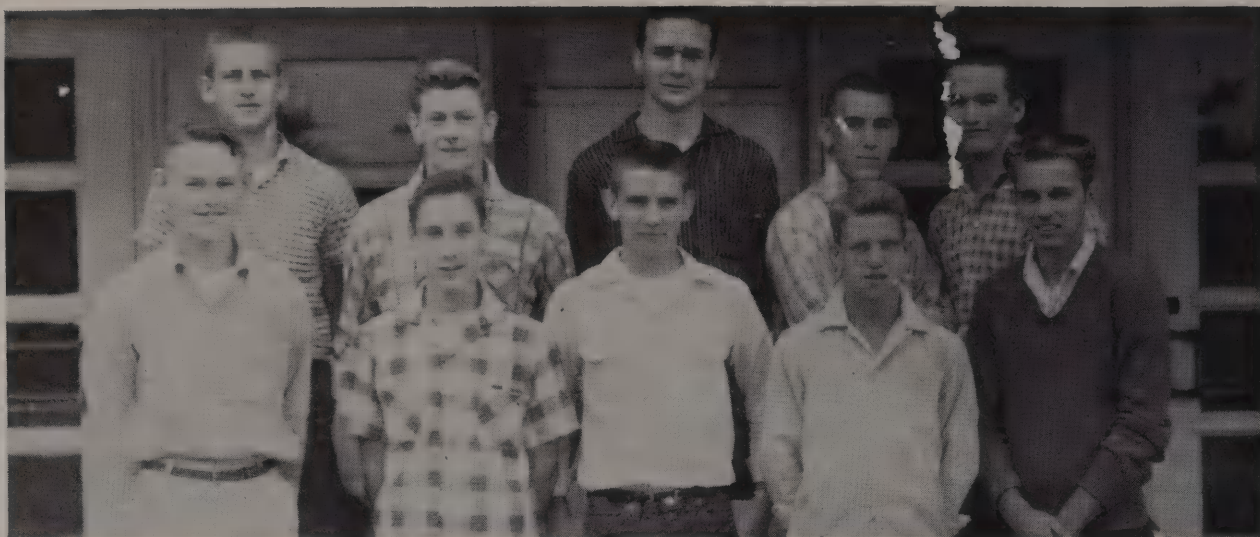

The club's purpose is to further the interest of the students in art, and to give the students a chance to visit different museums. The creed which the club supports is: All ye art minded, come."

The concession at the carnival was the most important accomplishment this year. The instructor of the art classes, Mrs. Raymond Scheller, is the sponsor of the club.

BUILDING TRADES

Building trades class, under the direction of Mr. Harold Mieuse, is made up of 12 students. The purpose of this class is to enable its students to have a better understanding of the skill involved in the actual building trade. Also, through this class they gain experience in such fields as plumbing, masonry, carpentry, electricity, and painting. After their experiences in these fields, they can better choose the one they would like to follow as their life's work.

FUTURE HOMEMAKERS OF AMERICA

The Robinson Chapter of F. H. A. has 80 members this year, all having qualified by having completed one semester of homemaking and having the willingness to help others.

The motto "Toward New Horizons" expresses the purpose of the Future Homemakers of America. This purpose is to bring together the activities in homemaking classes and relate them to home and community life.

The program of work for this year included a wiener roast which was the initiation held October 8 for new members. Previous to this, we held a picnic at the city park for all prospective members. We also served at the uptown carnival bean supper, October 5, and made a float for the parade. Members sold mums the week before the last home football game which was November 8. Two pepsi stands were F. H. A.'s contribution to the annual Carnival. December 11, Santa Claus visited all F. H. A. members and their small guests during the Christmas party. On December 21, the F. H. A. sponsored an all school dance. National F. H. A. week was the week of March 23-29, with a host of activities taking place.

We are the Future Homemakers of America

We face the future with warm courage and high hopes

For we have the clear consciousness of seeking

Old and precious values

For we are the builders of homes

Homes for America's future

Homes where living will be the expression of everything

That is good and fair

Homes where truth and love and security and faith

Will be realistic not dreams

We are the Future Homemakers of America

We face the future with warm courage and high hopes. hopes.

RHS ACTIVITIES

There is an annual Christmas program sponsored each year for the students before the vacation starts. The readers are J. Elmer, D. Kinney, S. Chronic, M. Henderson, and L. Sydnor. They are backed by the Mixed Chorus.

A typical view of the main hall on carnival night. This year the carnival was held on November 7.

RHS ACTIVITIES

Each year, a turkey dinner is shared by all students. The dinner was held this year on December 20, in the school cafeteria.

During Senior Career Day, some boys listen to the recruiters from the various branches of the service.

The full cast of the annual Drama Club play. This year the club produced a melodrama, "East Lynne," for a change in pace from the regular plays.

DRAMA CLUB PLAY

"I didn't do nuff'in mam," states L. Sydnor in her part as a hired girl.

"Hee, hee, hee. My plan is working. The beautiful lady will be mine," is the thought of villain, B. Ritchie, as the heroine S. Brown falls into his trap.

CARNIVAL QUEEN CANDIDATES

Susie Shepard, queen of the 1957-58 Annual Carnival

After much hard work and many anxious moments, Miss Susie Shepard, senior candidate, was crowned queen of the all-school carnival by the Student Council president, Bob Kaiser.

Janie Kerr, freshman candidate

Jane Chamblin, sophomore candidate

The queen, Susie Shepard, escorted by the senior class president, Dave Wilkin, entering the gym for her coronation.

An annual attraction around RHS each fall is the all-school carnival which attracts people from near and far. Highlighting the carnival is the finale, at which time the queen is crowned, climaxing much hard work by all the classes for their respective candidates. Shown here are some views which will be remembered always by all who attended the 1957-58 RHS carnival.

Donna Sue Glenn reigned as queen of the 1957 Junior-Senior Prom. Her attendants are Deanna Starwalt, Ann McQueen, and Mary Sue Willenborg.

Prom night is a magical night looked forward to by all students, and each year it is the job of the junior class to plan and present the prom for the seniors. In 1957 the juniors choose "Moonlight and Roses" for their theme and carried it out with the name written in roses on one wall against a white background. The centerpiece was a three-tiered fountain with blue lights under the falling water.

During the prom, some students dance, as others relax for a while and talk with their friends.

Miss Donna Sue Glenn and her court during the coronation at the 1957 Junior-Senior Prom. She was crowned by junior class president, Don McCrory.

Some of the students "live it up" during a fast number by the band. Music was furnished by Don Lawrence and his orchestra from Champaign.

Prom night is long-remembered, and each moment, whether it's spent dancing or talking, is also recalled for a long time afterwards.

Music

Time marches on—so does the RHS Band, "The Marching Maroons," as they strive to make our school more outstanding. Both the "Mixed Chorus" and the "Girls' Chorus" have also played an important part in attaining this goal. Many hours of hard work have not been in vain, as shown by the recognition received by the RHS Music Department for their many activities.

MUSICAL MOODS

R. Lathrop, S. Weger, B. Wright

One of the outstanding events of the RHS Music Department is the musical production "Musical Moods."

This year the production featured three moods: the religious mood, the Hawaiian mood, and the modern mood.

A church was the setting of the religious mood.

An elaborate feast was the setting of the second mood, the Hawaiian mood.

The modern mood was presented as a stage performance.

A scene from the Hawaiian mood includes S. Jones, S. Brown, K. Alexander, J. Coombes, and M. Flynn.

CONTEST ENTRIES

The more advanced students in the music Department represent RHS at the district contest held in the early spring. Winners of this contest are eligible to participate in state contest. This year the music department did a very fine job at contest and credited RHS with eight firsts, twenty seconds, and three thirds.

BAND REHEARSAL

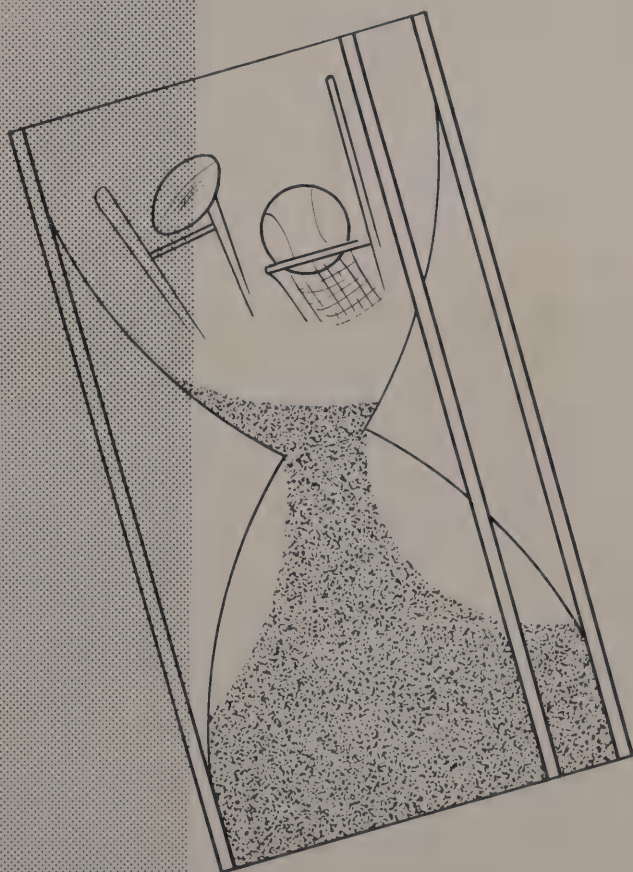

Members of the band begin the day at RHS with a period of hard work. The band meets each morning during first period, and, in addition, rehearsals are often conducted at night.

Mr. C. M. Cauley, Director, and Ralph Lathrop, Drum Major, frequently discuss routines before a performance.

Sports

This year a sign has been placed above the door of the locker rooms. This sign reads: "Through these portals pass the finest gentlemen and the greatest athletes in the state of Illinois." We, the students of RHS, believe this statement to be true. We are very proud of our "Fighting Maroons."

STUDENT COUNCIL

The Junior High Student Council has been organized for four years. Under the direction of Mrs. Junia Gill, they have sponsored activities for the Seventh and Eighth Graders. They sell refreshments at the basketball games to earn money to buy a gift for the Seventh and Eight Grade. They decorate the bulletin board in the Seventh and Eighth Grade Section. This year, the Junior High Journalism staff was organized to publish news of Junior High activities. The members of the staff have assisted in publishing seven insert pages covering all Junior High activities. The purpose of the staff is to afford Junior High students the opportunity to learn all phases of journalism; to publish a one page insert in alternate editions of the Senior High paper. Under the direction of Mr. Jock Wilson, the thirty members of the staff did a fine job.

The Junior High School Band participated in many activities this year. They marched at two home football games, and the Pep Band played at the home basketball games. The band presented two very fine performances at their Spring and Fall Concerts. Our band performed for large audiences when they marched in the Robinson Fall Festival Parade, and in the Palestine Labor Day Parade. The band participated in the Crawford County Band and Choral Festival, which was a very successful event. As a climax to the year's work, they went to band contest, where they did exceptionally well.

Cousin Murphy,
I have and I week left of our highschool days
at R.H.S., then everyone will be going on their separate ways. I hope, as years go by, we will stay in contact with each other. I sincerely will that if "he" is who you want, you will catch him. I am sure you will accomplish that thing you set out to do and wish you the best of luck. When you get married, and have lots of children, I hope that we can have a reunion and discuss these days at R.H.S.

P.S. You know who I mean by "he";

last sentence will ever happen to you; but wait and see.
